Service Representation Acknowledgment

(Please check each box to confirm your understanding)

- ☐ I understand that participation in Woosah United does not require me to represent all services I offer.
 - ☐ I understand that I am responsible for clearly describing the services I choose to share.
 - ☐ I acknowledge that Woosah United provides space for connection and access, not endorsement.
 - ☐ I agree to support an environment where individuals can explore offerings without pressure or expectation.
 - ☐ I understand that participation reflects shared respect for community space and personal choice.

Professional Alignment

Briefly describe how your business supports wellbeing and contributes positively to the community:

Participation Agreement

I understand that Woosah United is a community-centered wellness collective rooted in choice, respect, and access.

I agree to participate in alignment with the Woosah United Member Participation Guidelines and to engage respectfully within shared spaces.

I understand that:

- Woosah United provides a shared platform for connection and visibility
 - Participation does not imply endorsement of specific services, products, or outcomes
 - Individuals are responsible for their own choices and decisions

Membership Contribution

Woosah United operates as a professional wellness collective supported by its members.

Membership Options:

- ☐ Annual Membership — $150/year
 - ☐ Monthly Membership — $20/month

Contributor Membership (By Participation)

Woosah United recognizes that some members contribute significant time, skills, or labor toward building and sustaining the community.

Individuals who actively support Woosah United through leadership, coordination, facilitation, or operational contributions may be eligible for a Contributor Membership, which may include a discounted or waived membership fee.

Contributor Memberships are based on active participation, reviewed annually, and are not guaranteed or permanent.

Liability, Non-Endorsement & Member Acknowledgment

Woosah United serves as a collaborative community and networking collective only. Participation or membership does not imply approval, certification, endorsement, or oversight of any member's business practices, products, services, or professional claims.

Woosah United does not provide medical, legal, financial, or professional advice. Any information shared within the community—including discussions, posts, events, workshops, or resources—is for general informational purposes only and should not replace consultation with qualified professionals.

All members operate independently and are solely responsible for their own businesses, practices, representations, compliance, and interactions. Woosah United is not a party to transactions, agreements, or disputes between members or between members and the public.

Participation in Woosah United—including engagement in discussions, events, collaborations, referrals, or shared opportunities—is voluntary and undertaken at each individual's discretion. Members assume responsibility for their participation and any outcomes resulting from their choices.

Member Acknowledgment & Electronic Signature (Required)

☐ I have read, understand, and agree to the Woosah United Member Participation Guidelines, including all Community Governance, Limitation of Liability, and Legal Boundaries provisions. I acknowledge that these guidelines apply to all current and future participation in Woosah United spaces.
